JIM HOPSON
PRESIDENT AND CEO

On January 2, 2005, Jim Hopson came on board as the Roughriders' first Chief Executive Officer. During his first three years as President/CEO fans have seen many changes on and off the field. The changes and a focus on excellence in all areas of the operation culminated in the team winning the 2007 Grey Cup!

At the midway point of the 2006 season, Hopson made the recommendation to the team's board of directors to change General Managers and bring in Eric Tillman. The addition of Tillman has been instrumental in achieving the success on the field which brought the Grey Cup back to Saskatchewan.

There has been a renewed focus on community involvement by the club and a significant number of players are now working and making Regina their year round home and being very involved in the community.

Mosaic Stadium has also undergone numerous improvements with the most recent being the installation of FieldTurf prior to the 2007 season. Off the field, the Riders are continuing to excel as a business and recorded the highest profit in the team's history in 2007. The team has won Paragon Awards for both marketing and community involvement over the past three years. These have all been steps in attaining the level of excellence Hopson desires for the organization.

A high priority of the club is the development of a long term vision for the home of the Green and White. This is underway and being developed in partnership with the City of Regina. This will ensure Mosaic Stadium will not only give the players and coaches a first class facility to call home, but will also give the proud fans of the Riders a quality stadium in which they can cheer on their beloved team.

Hopson's role with the Roughriders includes overseeing all of the operations of the football club, and he brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to that role. Prior to joining the Roughriders Hopson spent 30 years as a teacher, principal and Director of Education in Saskatchewan. Most recently he was the first CEO/Director of Education for the newly amalgamated Qu'Appelle Valley School Division.

Hopson's roots in Saskatchewan football run deep. He began his football career in high school with the Thom Collegiate Trojans. He then went on to play for the Regina Rams prior to joining the Saskatchewan Roughriders in 1973.

Hopson became a starter in 1974 and lined up at guard or tackle for each game during the season. Hopson played four seasons with Saskatchewan and helped open holes for the likes of legendary back George Reed, and in protecting quarterback great Ron Lancaster.

Hopson was able to combine teaching in Lumsden with playing professional football during the 1975 and 1976 seasons, but after playing in the 1976 Grey Cup he retired from football to concentrate on his career in education. He followed the Riders as a fan until 2001 when he joined the board at the request of the Rider Alumni to serve as a special advisor.

Tillman has been involved in the CFL for the last 17 years during which time he has served as General Manager for four teams – BC, Toronto, Ottawa and currently Saskatchewan. During that time he has captured three Grey Cups - the most recent being in 2007 with the Roughriders.

He graduated with a Journalism Degree from the University of Mississippi in 1979.

Tillman began his football career in 1981 when he joined the public relations department of the NFL's Houston Oilers.

He then moved to the CFL in 1982 when he took the job of Director of Player Personnel with the Montreal Concordes.

In 1993, he accepted the vacant General Manager position with the BC Lions, inheriting a team that had finished 3-15 the previous year. The team went on to win 31 games over the next three seasons which included capturing the Grey Cup in 1994 in Vancouver 26-23 over the Baltimore Stallions thanks to Lui Passaglia's winning field goal.

Tillman then left the CFL to head overseas where he worked as the Director of Football Operations for NFL Europe. In that role, Tillman also spent extensive time in the NFL office in New York.

He returned to the CFL in 1997 as the General Manager of the Toronto Argonauts. The Argos went on to capture the Grey Cup that season, knocking off the upstart Roughriders in that game with standout quarterback Doug Flutie at the helm for the Boatmen. Tillman was with Toronto for the 1997 season and the 1999 season as the team's GM.

In his most recent Manager role in the CFL, Tillman worked with the Ottawa Renegades for the expansion clubs' first three seasons prior to heading into broadcasting where he worked with CBC and Sportsnet as a television analyst for the CFL.

Over the course of his CFL career, Tillman has brought many noteworthy players into the CFL including Jeremy O'Day, Kerry Joseph, Fred Perry and Korey Banks. The 50-year-old was born in Jackson, Mississippi. He and his wife Francine have two children – Alexandra (4) and Jackson (3).

JOE WOMACK

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Womack begins his second season as Director of Player Personnel for the Saskatchewan Roughriders. He also works with all the players throughout the year as the team's strength and conditioning coach.

Womack brings the Riders a wealth of football knowledge after spending the last 36 years in the business. Most recently, Womack spent the past eight years scouting in the NFL with the Philadelphia Eagles, Washington Redskins, and the NFL Combine.

He first came to the CFL as a player in the 1970's with Winnipeg and Calgary. He also spent time with Chicago in the World Football League and still holds the record for the longest interception return (96 yards) for a touchdown.

After his playing days, Womack joined the Saskatchewan Roughriders as a scout in 1982. He moved on to work at the CFL office as the Director of Scouting in the mid-1980's. Womack also served as the Director of College Scouting for the BC Lions in the 1990's under G.M. Eric Tillman.

History

HISTORY

Organized football in Saskatchewan began on Tuesday, September 6, 1910 with the formation of the Regina Rugby Club. The original idea was for the team to be a rowing club, but three-down football soon found its way to Saskatchewan. The original colours of the Regina Rugby Club were gold and purple. The team lost its first game 7-6 to Moose Jaw.

The next season, the team changed its colours to blue and white to match the Regina Amateur Athletic Association. A third colour change occurred in 1912 when they changed to red and black, which they would keep for the next 36 years.

In 1924, the team changed its name from the Regina Rugby Club to the Regina Roughriders.

Ottawa's Rugby Club had been called the Rough Riders since the 1890's, but dropped it in favor of the "Senators" in 1924. Regina jumped at the chance to adopt the name "Roughriders".

There are two theories on where the name "Roughriders" came from. One states that it came from the North West Mounted Police who were called Roughriders because they broke the wild horse broncos used by the force. The other states there was a Canadian contingent who fought with Teddy Roosevelt in the Spanish-American War. Roosevelt's troops became known as the Roughriders. Following the war, the troops returned to Canada, part settling in Ottawa, and the rest moving out West. The colours of the Roosevelt infantry were red and black.

In 1921, East-West interlocking games began being played for the Canadian Championship symbolized by the Grey Cup.

Lacking suitable opposition in this province, in 1936, Regina banded with Winnipeg to form the Western Conference.

The year 1948 was a milestone one for the Roughriders. With the folding of both clubs in Moose Jaw and Saskatoon, the Regina Roughriders became a provincially-owned and -operated club, surviving only on the undying support from the entire province. They became the "SASKATCHEWAN ROUGHRIDERS".

The team also changed its colours in 1948 to the familiar Green and White. The team was in bad need of new uniforms, and when executive member Jack Fyffe found a set of green and white jerseys at a surplus store in Chicago, for pure economic reasons, the 50 year legacy of the "Green and White" was born and has existed to this day.

In 1956, the Roughriders suffered a terrible tragedy when players Gordon Sturtridge (#73), Mel Beckett (#40), Ray Syrnyk (#56) and Mario Demarco (#55) were killed in a plane crash while returning from an all-star game in Vancouver. Flight #810 crashed into Mt. Slesse in the Coastal Mountains just south of Chilliwack, B.C. The four players' uniforms are among the eight Roughrider numbers retired by the club. Dave Ridgway (#36), Ron Lancaster (#23), George Reed (#34) and Roger Aldag (#44) are the others.

HISTORY

Ten years removed from the tragic accident, the Roughriders, with coach Eagle Keys at the helm, saw their first great achievement. By defeating the Ottawa Rough Riders 29-14 in Vancouver's Empire Stadium on November 26th, 1966, Saskatchewan captured its first Grey Cup championship. Lancaster and Reed played key roles in leading the Riders to their first national title.

The Riders remained one of the best teams in the CFL for nearly 15 years, making the post-season every year from 1962 to 1976. Included in that span was five Grey Cup appearances, 1966 (which they won), 1967, '69, '72 and '76.

The Roughriders would update their look one more time in 1985, adding black and silver to the Green and White, and featuring a new stylized 'S' logo.

The team had several lean years during the late '70s and early 1980s, where poor on-field performances led to even worse gates. However, fans remained positive that a turn-around would soon come and it did, by way of one of the best Grey Cup games ever played.

On November 19, 1989, kicker Dave Ridgway nailed a 35-yard last minute field goal to seal the Roughriders' second ever Grey Cup championship with a 43-40 victory over the Hamilton Tiger-Cats at Toronto's SkyDome.

The win, and 'The Kick', will likely go down as one of the best Grey Cup games ever played in the history of the CFL. The Riders have made it to the championship game one time since, when in 1997 in Edmonton they lost 47-23 to the Doug Flutie-led Toronto Argonauts.

As the new era of the Saskatchewan Roughrider Football Club continues to grow, the team and its fans are drawing closer to regaining the glory of yesteryear while becoming one of the league's flagship franchises. Fans of the Saskatchewan Roughriders reside all across the country, and around the world for that matter.

Canada's Team has now made the playoffs six straight years, including four appearances in the Western Division Finals since 2003. The Riders reached the pinnacle of the CFL for the third time in the team's history when they captured the Grey Cup in Toronto on November 25, 2007 after defeating the Winnipeg Blue Bombers 23-19.

As the Green and White hit the field as the defending Grey Cup Champions this season, there is no question this team is primed to continue adding to its storied history.

MOSAIC STADIUM

The home of the Saskatchewan Roughriders has a long and proud history. From its earliest days as a simple Rugby field to its current stature as home to the 1995 and 2003 Grey Cups, Mosaic Stadium certainly has a storied past.

The first Rider teams played on the field of Park Hughes (located at the current Mosaic Stadium site). Families would come and circle the rugby field to watch the games. Over the years, temporary seating was put in place for fans, but many came and chose to sit on the grass and watch their favourite team.

In 1927, to accommodate the growing number of fans, Park Hughes and the adjoining Park de Young were reconfigured to provide a better venue. More seating was added, but spectators still showed up and parked their cars at the touchline to watch the action.

In 1936, a number of improvements were made to the field to make the fans more comfortable. Gone were the days of fans sitting along the sideline or jostling for position to see the action. New seating was built to accommodate the growing crowds. Also, a new press box was built and facilities were provided for radio broadcasts of the games.

In 1946, another major improvement was made to Park de Young. Prior to that year, the field at the site had never had turf. Each season, a new load of topsoil was dumped on the field to make it playable. Due to the dry Saskatchewan summers, the park became a dustbowl by the end of the season. But in 1946, the Regina Recreation Board agreed to seed the field to provide a quality surface for games to be played.

The year 1947 marked the renaming of Park de Young. The year before, Neil "Piffles" Taylor passed away. An instrumental part of the early development of the Roughriders, Taylor had been a player, coach, and executive for the team since its founding. Following Taylor's sudden death at the age of 48, the City of Regina renamed the Riders' home, Taylor Field.

In 1948, a $47,000 investment was made to build a 4,500-seat grandstand on the west side of the playing area.

For the next several years, the stadium remained relatively unchanged. It wasn't until the mid-1970s when it was agreed that it was time to move Taylor Field into the future. A major renovation was done to the stadium, which included the addition of a second level to the west-side grandstand, new offices and dressing room facilities as well as new artificial turf. The renovations allowed the Riders to move all operations into Taylor Field. It was a major step forward for the team.

In 1988, the Roughriders replaced the first artificial turf with a new type of system called OmniTurf. Unlike AstroTurf, OmniTurf was an inlay turf system, which relied on 300 tons of sand to hold it in place (rather than the traditional glued-down system). Over the years, a number of problems occurred with this system and it eventually became necessary to replace it prior to its usable age being reached.

In 1995, the Roughriders' hosted the Grey Cup for the first time.

In conjunction with this, a number of renovations were needed for the stadium to meet the Canadian Football League standards. The existing press box area on the west side of the stadium was renovated resulting in a new area called Club Seating West.

MOSAIC STADIUM

The area was built as a VIP area for the Grey Cup and later became corporate seating for the Riders. Because the new Club Seating area was built, displacing the media from their old seats, another area was needed as a media centre for the championship game. A new Club Seating East area was built on top of the existing east side stands. It was used to house all the visiting media for the big game. Following that, it was split, creating a new Roughrider media centre as well as more corporate seating for the organization.

In 2000, the Roughriders undertook a new turf project. In anticipation of hosting the 2003 Grey Cup, the team began to search out funding to replace the old OmniTurf. Due to great support from the community, the project was accomplished a year ahead of schedule and the new AstroTurf was in place prior to the beginning of the 2000 CFL season.

In preparation for the 2003 Grey Cup, temporary stands were built in the north and south endzones, enabling the grand ol' stadium to hold 51,000 spectators for the 91st Grey Cup championship on November 16th.

With a windfall of just over $2 million in revenue from that Grey Cup, as well as an on-going share offering to its fans, the Roughriders have begun to use this new capital to leverage funds to enhance the stadium even more. Plans were unveiled in December, 2004 to upgrade the facility and take the stadium into the future.

A state-of-the-art video board, sponsored by SaskTel, was unveiled in time for the 2005 season. The SaskTel MaxTron enabled the Roughriders and their fans to watch replays, be entertained and bring the CFL franchise in line with the other member clubs.

A new sound system was also installed in 2005 as well as many other improvements to the east side, including washrooms, concessions and refurbished seats. The Roughriders relocated the student section to the north endzone from section 28, enabling more red zone seating. In the south endzone, a VIP deck and stands was put in place for the start of the 2006 season, allowing the football club to host its corporate game day sponsors.

Prior to the 2007 CFL season, the Roughriders and the City of Regina partnered together to have FieldTurf installed at Mosaic Stadium. The upgrade to the playing surface has already brought forth numerous benefits to not only the Roughriders but all local amateur football teams who utilize the facility.

As more upgrades to the stadium are planned, the football club, in conjunction with The City of Regina, embarked on a 10-year journey with a global, yet grassroots partner in Mosaic Stadium back in 2006. Now, the place where so many legends have played, will be known as Mosaic Stadium.

The football club will also pay tribute to the stadium's first namesake, Piffles Taylor, by way of reconstructing the monument at the stadium entrance in order to bring more attention to this important figure in Roughrider history. Most recently the name of the street in front of the stadium has been changed to read "Piffles Taylor Way".

Without question, the home of the Green and White will continue to remake itself to meet the needs of the League, the Saskatchewan Roughrider Football Club and its fans. But no matter what changes lie ahead, the history and appeal of Mosaic Stadium remains unmatched in the CFL.

AWARDS

FRONTIER PETERBILT PRESIDENTS' RING AWARD

Frontier Peterbilt proudly presents the Presidents' Ring Award. This award is presented annually to the Roughrider player who has exemplified to his teammates as having exceptional motivational and leadership skills on and off the field. The player must also exhibit a commitment to his community by way of charity events and youth-oriented initiatives.

The recipient of this year's Frontier Peterbilt Presidents' Ring Award was quarterback Kerry Joseph. During his time in Saskatchewan, Joseph spent countless hours attending charity events and worked closely with Kidsport through his program Kerry's Catch for KidSport which allowed hundreds of economically disadvantaged kids the opportunity to be involved in sport.

AWARDS

MOSAIC COMMUNITY AWARD

RIDERS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Saskatchewan Roughriders Football Club is committed to their community. Over the years the organization has made it a priority to give back to the local community as well as to offer support to non-profit organizations across the province.

The Green and White have always strived to contribute significantly to charities, amateur sport as well as a number of organizations through donations, financial aid and even by lending a hand.

Along with being committed to offering financial aid to worthwhile organizations the team's players, coaches and administration are always striving to be directly involved in helping others. That includes speaking at over 100 schools in the province as well as helping out at a variety of events. The team's coaches and administration also are committed to lending a hand as they spent over 600 hours attending community events.

In the off-season the players hit the road to attend events in every corner of the province. This past year members of the championship team took to the highways in a special Grey Cup tour which hit dozens of communities throughout Saskatchewan. Rider fans attended various Grey Cup celebrations where they had the opportunity to see the beloved trophy first hand.

Members of the Green and White make every attempt to be involved in the provincial community as much as possible. They know the passion for the Riders runs deep in Saskatchewan and it is their way of giving back to the CFL's greatest fans.

Since 1910, no other team has been a part of the provincial fabric as has the Saskatchewan Roughrider Football Club and they are focused on being committed to the province of Saskatchewan year after year.

GAINER THE GOPHER

Gainer the Gopher has been a member of the Green and White family for over 30 years now. In that time he has become a Saskatchewan icon while continually breaking down the barriers between man and rodent.

Gainer was one of 38 children born to Dwayne and Agnes Gopher, owners of a small trenching and excavation company in Parkbeg, Saskatchewan. Although his parents always knew Gainer was different from his siblings, they never in their wildest dreams ever expected one of their own to become a true Saskatchewan icon.

Back in 1977, Gainer bought a ticket to see his favourite football team play for the very first time. Immediately after entering the stadium, the lovable gopher knew he had found his destiny. After leading the crowd in a variety of cheers that day, the Roughriders hired Gainer on the spot and the rest is now history.

Since that special day, Gainer can always be found rallying the fans at Mosaic Stadium. His energy, his enthusiasm and his dance capabilities still remain unmatched by any other CFL mascot. His ingenuity continues to break new ground and in the end, Gainer the Gopher continually proves that he truly is one of a kind.

Over the years, Gainer has grown and evolved into a high-spirited rodent for all to love and in 2006 another important transition took place. It was then that Gainer the Gopher first donned his new jersey bearing the number 13. This was an honour for Gainer as it made him the ambassador for all Saskatchewan Roughrider fans who are the ever-important 13th man.

RIDER RADIO 620 CKRM

At home or on the road, trust Rod Pedersen, Carm Carteri and the entire 620 CKRM Rider Radio football crew to provide Roughrider fans with the CFL's best Game Day coverage.

THE BROADCAST TEAM

Rod Pedersen is entering his ninth season as the play-by-play voice of the Saskatchewan Roughriders. The 35-year old product of Milestone, SK has worked in the sports broadcasting business for the past 15 years after attending Mount Royal College in Calgary in the Broadcasting Faculty. Rod's career has included stints at CFSL Radio in Weyburn, CKBI Radio in Prince Albert and currently with CKRM Radio in Regina, where he has been the Voice of the Regina Pats since 1995 and the Voice of the Riders since 1999. As the Sports Director at Harvard Broadcasting, Rod can be heard on the 620 CKRM morning show, as well as every Monday night on Saskatchewan's top-rated sports radio talk show, "Sportsline". Rod's involvement on Rider games dates back to 1991 when he was sideline reporter and host of Roughrider Warm-up on CKRM. That summer he was also the Voice of the Regina Rams. In 2003, Rod was inducted into the Rural Sports Hall of Fame in Indian Head, SK.

Carmelo Carteri was born and raised in Regina. Carm is a graduate of O'Neill high school, where he began his football career. Carm was an MVP on O'Neill's first city and provincial high school football championship teams. Following his high school career, the linebacker accepted a scholarship to Porterville, CA to attend junior college and play football. He achieved MVP honours once again before moving on to the University of Montana. Carm was the first pick of the Ottawa Rough Riders in 1979, beginning a six-year career in the Canadian Football League that saw him spend three seasons with the Roughriders, two as a Tiger-Cat in Hamilton and one season in Montreal. Carm was an Eastern All-star linebacker in 1981 with Hamilton. Since his retirement from pro football in 1985, Carm has owned and operated the Regina Court and Fitness Club in southwest Regina. The club is the most-preferred training centre for Roughrider players. Carm is entering his 20th year as a colour commentator for 620 CKRM Rider Radio. His knowledge of the game and of the Saskatchewan Roughrider Football Club is instrumental in the success of each Rider broadcast.
